INTRODUCTION

This guide demonstrates how to create a wiki page.

Intro to Wikis 101

There are two ways to create documents: guides and wikis. Guides are step-by-step, structured documents that teach users how to complete any number of awesome projects. Wikis, on the other hand, follow a much less structured format. A wiki page is used for documentation that is not procedural (think text-heavy).

Step 3

- Insert your wiki page content.
  - Create Headers and Sub-Headers.
  - You can upload PDF documents and Images to your wiki page.
  - Tag your wiki and create a Dynamic List that can appear in any category, or on your home (root) page.

- ⓘ Here is a great example: wiki page.
